

Altamira Therapeutics Ltd. Confidential and Anonymous Financial Concern Hotline

The SEC, in the final ruling regarding standards relating to Audit Committees, requires that Altamira Therapeutics Ltd. provide a facility for the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters.

Please feel free to contribute any comments through this interface regarding such accounting matters. Your message is encrypted and will be delivered directly to the Audit Committee.

Understanding and acting upon any issues that exist regarding financial, accounting and/or audit matters is an essential component to Altamira Therapeutics Ltd. ability to take action and ensure the highest levels of financial fidelity.

You may leave a message using any of the following two methods: secure electronic web form and secure hotline. If you leave a message by phone, you will be prompted to enter the company identifier indicated under the phone number.

If you require that we follow up on your message, please indicate it on the web form.

Thank you.